

Windfall, The Thicket Maidenhead, Berkshire, SL6 3QE

"A substantial detached chalet style home with spacious and flexible accommodation"

A detached family house of generous proportions (2800 sq ft) located at the end of a long private driveway on the approach to Claires Court Junior School adjacent to Maidenhead Thicket. The particularly versatile accommodation is complimented by a delightful secluded south facing garden extending to circa half an acre with driveway, garage and car port. The house has great potential for extension (STPP) and is sold with no onward chain.

The property is in a sought after location within easy reach of central Maidenhead with its extensive range of shops, cafes, restaurants and leisure facilities. Transport links are excellent, there is a mainline station into London Paddington and central London, serviced by the Elizabeth Line with both the M40 and M40 motorways close by. Local state and private schools are highly regarded
